Westbound Mathews Bridge to see closure Friday night until Sunday Morning, Hart Bridge to see closure Sunday

Jacksonville – Jacksonville’s Mathews Bridge will see a westbound bridge closure from Friday, February 9 at 6 p.m. until Sunday, February 11 at 6 a.m. as crews continue to rehabilitate portions of the deck. Eastbound drivers will see an inside lane closure on the bridge.

Jacksonville’s Hart Bridge will see a full closure Sunday, February 11 from 7:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. Crews will continue their work to perform steel and coating repairs on the bridge.

During the westbound Mathews Bridge closure, drivers will be detoured to the Hart Bridge. Traffic attempting to cross the Hart Bridge on Sunday, February 11 will be detoured to the Mathews Bridge.

Message boards and signs will direct traffic through the detour and law enforcement personnel will be staged to prevent access to the bridges during their closures. Mariners will not be impacted by the rehabilitation projects.
